Designed specially for the needs of notebook users, the Logitech® Premium Notebook Headset features a low profile, adjustable, behind-the-head design that will fit you comfortably and securely. When not in use, it folds flat and slips into a protective travel case, making it an excellent travel companion. It offers high-performance audio, a noise-cancelling microphone to filter out unwanted background noise, and a convenient inline volume and mute control. It's the perfect headset for PC calling, Internet chat, gaming, movies and music (including most MP3 music players). Provides both digital USB and traditional analogue connectivity. 2-year guarantee. Full product support.
